(See section 3A)

35 (1) Mines.

(2) Inflammable substances or explosives.

(3) Hazardous process.

63 of 1948. Explanation.—For the purposes of this Schedule, “hazardous process” has the meaning assigned to it in clause (cb) of the Factories Act, 1948.”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986 provides for prohibition of the engagement of children in certain employments and for regulating the conditions of work of children in certain other employments.

2. Section 3 of the said Act, inter alia, provides that employment of children below the age of fourteen years is prohibited in any of the occupations or processes specified in the Schedule to the said Act. Section 6 of the said Act provides that the provisions of Part III of the Act (which relates with the regulation of conditions of work of children) shall apply to an establishment or a class of establishments in which none of the occupations referred to in section 3 is carried on.

3. It is proposed to prohibit employment of children in all occupations and processes to facilitate their enrolment in schools in view of the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009 and to prohibit employment of adolescents (persons who have completed fourteenth year of age but have not completed eighteenth year) in hazardous occupations and processes and to regulate the conditions of service of adolescents in line with the ILO Convention 138 and Convention 182, respectively.

4. The provisions of the Bill, inter alia, provide for—

(i) the amendment of the long title of the said Act in view of the proposed provision to prohibit employment of children below fourteen years in all occupations and processes and the proposed provision to prohibit employment of adolescents (persons who have completed fourteenth year of age but have not completed eighteenth year) in hazardous occupations and processes set forth in the proposed Schedule;

(ii) the amendment of the short title of the said Act in view of the insertion of the proposed new definition of “adolescent” whose employment in hazardous occupations and processes is also proposed to be prohibited;

(iii) the insertion of a new definition of “adolescent” that means a person who has completed his fourteenth year of age but not completed his eighteenth year in section 2 of the said Act;

(iv) the amendment of the definition of “child” to provide that child means a person who has not completed his fourteenth year of age or such age as may be specified in the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009, whichever is more;

(v) the amendment of section 3 of the said Act to prohibit employment of children in all occupations and processes except where the child helps his family after his school hours or helps his family in fields, home-based work, forest gathering or attends technical institutions during vacations for the purpose of learning, but does not include any help or attending technical institutions where there is subordinate relationship of labour or work which are outsourced and carried out in home;

(vi) the insertion of a new section 3A to prohibit employment of adolescents in any hazardous occupations and processes specified in the proposed Schedule;

(vii) the amendment of section 4 of the said Act to empower the Central Government to add or omit any hazardous occupations and processes from the Schedule to the proposed legislation;

(viii) the omission of Part III of the said Act in view of the prohibition of employment of children below fourteen years of age in all occupations and processes;

(ix) the amendment of sub-section (1) of section 14 to enhance the punishment from imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to one year or with fine which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend to twenty thousand rupees, to imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to two years, or with fine which shall not be less than twenty thousand rupees but which may extend to fifty thousand rupees, or with both, for employment or permitting any children to work in any occupations or processes in contravention of section 3. However, the parents or guardians of such children shall not be liable for such punishment unless they permit such children for commercial purposes;

(x) the insertion of new sub-section (1A) in section 14 to provide punishment of imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to two years, or with fine which shall not be less than twenty thousand rupees but which may extend to fifty thousand rupees, or with both for employment or permitting to work any adolescent in any hazardous occupations or processes. However, the parents or guardians of such adolescents shall not be liable for punishment unless they permit such adolescents to work in contravention of the provisions of section 3A;

(xi) the amendment of sub-section (2) of section 14, which provides punishment for the convicted offender who commits a like offence afterwards, to enhance the minimum punishment existing therein from six months to one year and maximum punishment from two years to three years;

(xii) the insertion of a new section 14A to provide that the offences under the proposed legislation shall be cognizable notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973;

(xiii) the omission of the provisions of clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (3) of section 14 of the Act in view of the prohibition of the employment of children below fourteen years in all occupations and processes;

(xiv) the insertion of new section 17A to empower the appropriate Government to confer such powers and impose such duties on a District Magistrate as may be necessary to ensure that the provisions of the proposed legislation are properly carried out and to empower the District Magistrate to specify the officer subordinate to him who shall exercise all or any of the powers and perform all or any of the duties so conferred or imposed and the local limits within which such powers or duties shall be carried out by the officer in accordance with the rules made by the appropriate Government;

(xv) the insertion of new section 17B which empowers the appropriate Government to make periodic inspection or cause such inspection to be made, of the places at which the employment of the children is prohibited and the hazardous occupation or process are carried out, at such intervals as it thinks fit and monitor the issues relating to the provisions of the Act; and

(xvi) the substitution of the existing Schedule to the Act by new Schedule in view of the prohibition of children in all occupations and processes and regulation of employment of adolescents in hazardous occupations and processes.

5. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any workshop wherein any process is carried on by the occupier with the aid of his family or to any school established by, or receiving assistance or recognition from, Government.

Power to amend the Schedule.

4. The Central Government, after giving by notification in the Official Gazette, not less than three months’ notice of its intention so to do, may, by like notification, add any occupation or process to the Schedule and thereupon the Schedule shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

* * * * *

PART III

REGULATION OF CONDITIONS OF WORK OF CHILDREN

Application of Part.

6. The provisions of this Part shall apply to an establishment or a class of establishments in which none of the occupations or processes referred to in section 3 is carried on.

Hours and period of work.

7. (1) No child shall be required or permitted to work in any establishment in excess of such number of hours as may be prescribed for such establishment or class of establishments.

(2) The period of work on each day shall be so fixed that no period shall exceed three hours and that no child shall work for more than three hours before he has had an interval for rest for at least one hour.

(3) The period of work of a child shall be so arranged that inclusive of his interval for rest, under sub-section (2), it shall not be spread over more than six hours, including the time spent in waiting for work on any day.

(4) No child shall be permitted or required to work between 7 p.m. and 8 a.m.

(5) No child shall be required or permitted to work overtime.

(6) No child shall be required or permitted to work in any establishment on any day on which he has already been working in another establishment.

8. Every child employed in an establishment shall be allowed in each week, a holiday of one whole day, which day shall be specified by the occupier in a notice permanently exhibited in a conspicuous place in the establishment and the day so specified shall not be altered by the occupier more than once in three months.

Weekly holidays.

9. (1) Every occupier in relation to an establishment in which a child was employed or permitted to work immediately before the date of commencement of this Act in relation to such establishment shall, within a period of thirty days from such commencement, send to the Inspector within whose local limits the establishment is situated, a written notice containing the following particulars, namely:—

Notice to Inspector.

(a) the name and situation of the establishment;

(b) the name of the person in actual management of the establishment;

(c) the address to which communications relating to the establishment should be sent; and

(d) the nature of the occupation or process carried on in the establishment.

(2) Every occupier, in relation to an establishment, who employs, or permits to work, any child after the date of commencement of this Act in relation to such establishment, shall, within a period of thirty days from the date of such employment, send to the Inspector within whose local limits the establishment is situated, a written notice containing the particulars as are mentioned in sub-section (1).

Explanation.— For the purposes of sub-sections (1) and (2), “date of commencement of this Act, in relation to an establishment” means the date of bringing into force of this Act in relation to such establishment.

(3) Nothing in sections 7, 8 and 9 shall apply to any establishment wherein any process is carried on by the occupier with the aid of his family or to any school established by, or receiving assistance or recognition from, Government.

10. If any question arises between an Inspector and an occupier as to the age of any child who is employed or is permitted to work by him in an establishment, the question shall, in the absence of a certificate as to the age of such child granted by the prescribed medical authority, be referred by the Inspector for decision to the prescribed medical authority.

Disputes as to age.

11. There shall be maintained by every occupier in respect of children employed or permitted to work in any establishment, a register to be available for inspection by an Inspector at all times during working hours or when work is being carried on in any such establishment, showing—

Maintenance of register.

(a) the name and date of birth of every child so employed or permitted to work;

(b) hours and periods of work of any such child and the intervals of rest to which he is entitled;

(c) the nature of work of any such child; and

(d) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

12. Every railway administration, every port authority and every occupier shall cause to be displayed in a conspicuous and accessible place at every station on its railway or within the limits of a port or at the place of work, as the case may be, a notice in the local language and in the English language containing an abstract of sections 3 and 14.

Display of notice containing abstract of sections 3 and 14.

13. (1) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the health and safety of the children employed or permitted to work in any establishment or class of establishments.

Health and safety.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the said rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) cleanliness in the place of work and its freedom from nuisance;
- (b) disposal of wastes and effluents;
- (c) ventilation and temperature;
